ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL

Affairs of the Institution in Good Condition—Board of Lady Managers Elect Officers

The regular meeting of the Board of lady managers of the Alexandria City Hospital was held Thursday morning. Mrs. R. N. Ballenger presided and the reports showed the hospital to be very busy and the affairs of the institution in good condition. Miss Carter, the new superintendent, who has been in charge since November 1st, has thus far proved to be the right person in the right place.

Dr. Wm. Thornwall Davis, the well known eye specialist of Washington, has generously agreed to visit the hospital, one afternoon each week and his services have been most gratefully accepted by the Board of managers an dthe staff of physicians. This will be of enormous benefit to the hospital.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. R. N. Ballenger, President; Mrs. L. W. Reid, Vice President; Miss Mittie Klipstein, Secretary; Mrs. Frank King, Corresponding Secretary.

The building of the new hospital is progressing rapidly, thanks to the workmen and beautiful weather, and the outside work is nearing completion. The hospital managers have applications from patients all around this section of the state, many preferring to come here for treatment rather than go to Washingon, but all cannot be accommodated, until they have more space. It is hoped to get into the new hopsital, therefore, as soon as possible.

FIRST WOMAN IN CONGRESS

Miss Rankin, Montana, Congratulated by Sex All Over Country

Missoula, Mont., Nov. 11.—Messages of congratulation from suffrage leaders in many parts of the country poured into Missoula yesterday for Miss Jeannette Rankin, Republican the first woman to be elected to Congress. Miss Rankin's campaign managers contend that she had been successful by at least 2000 majority.

"I felt that the women would stand by me," Miss Rankin said today. "It is wonderful to me to think of having the opportunity of being the first woman to sit in Congress with 434 men."

Miss Rankin is small and slight. She is a graduate from the University of Montana and the School of Philanthropy of New York.

FIND DEAD BABY IN MARSH.

Finely Dressed Infant May Have Been Tossed From Automobile.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 11.—Attired in white clothing of the finest and most expensive texture the body of a 7 months old girl was found on the mud flats in the marshes along the causeway a mile from the Minquadale Home, Thursday morning by a negress, who notified Manlove MacFarland, a milkman, who in turn notified the police and Deputy Coroner Nichols, who removed the little corpse to the Morgue.

The condition of the body and of the clothing indicated that the baby had not been in the water very long. There was no mark of any kind on the garments that would furnish a clew to the identity of the child's parents. The police believe the baby was taken to the scene in an automobile and thrown into the marches, for the roadway skirts the edge of the marshes at the point where it was found.

TOMBSTONE CRUSHES BOY.

York, Pa., Nov. 11.—Playing in the Freysville Cemetery while his mother was at work in the church near by, 5 year old George Stein, was almost fatally crushed under a tombstone today. His left thigh is broken and he is hurt internally.

The child attempted to climb on the stone, which tilted and fell upon him. His cries brought his mother, who released him.

TEST OF CITIZENSHIP

Conditions in City Tranquil and No Cases for Trial in the Police Court This Morning.

No infractions of law have been reported by the police of this city during the past forty-eight hours. The Gazette has referred to the serene conditions in Alexandria several times this week, and suggested that while the members of the police are doubtless performing well their duty in the city proper as well as in the recently-annexed territory, due credit must be given the temper of the people of old Alexandria who ever show themselves to be law-abiding.

Some folks are disposed to question human laws, but when such are framed in the proper spirit for the good of the greatest number, they are recognized by heaven, and violations of the same are of a more serious nature than is supposed by the thoughtless.

The following verses from the New Testament should be read closely by all. It tells us civil officers are sent by God, even the tax collector:

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the powers, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rules are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid: for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath but also for conscience sake. For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor. Owe no man anything.

It is suggested by some that the recent revival conducted in this city by Rev. Gypsy Smith was at a proper time in view of the fact that this as well as every other community in the Old Dominion would be called upon one month later to accommodate itself to a new order of things. Alexandria was ready for the transition, and the people of our old city show no disposition to return to former conditions.

LUNGS SAVED BY SILENCE.

Novel Treatment of Tuberculosis Shares Success With Rest.

Baltimore, Nov. 11.—Medical men of Baltimore, are declaring the success of two novel methods of treating tuberculosis that have now had a thorough testing out by Baltimore patients for more than a year.

In the one case, a prominent Baltimore manufacturer, head of a big firm, kept silent for one year to give tissues in his vocal organs a chance to strengthen and thus resist the spread of the tubercular infection.

The other treatment has been tried by a number of patients, involves the closing off of one lung to give the other infected lung a chance to recover. This treatment, of course, means complete rest of every kind for the patients.

Both these lung cases were handled at Sudowood Tuberculosis Sanitarium, on the outskirts of Baltimore.

GERMANS REPULSED

Paris, Nov. 11—The Germans sustained serious losses when they were repulsed in attacks on French positions south of the Somme in the victory of Deniecourt, the war office announced today.

"We maintained all our ground," the statement said.

North of the Somme there were spirited artillery duels in the region of Les Boeufs and Sailly-Saillisel. French aviators brought down five German aeroplanes.

Two were destroyed by Aviator Guynamer, making the total of enemy machines brought down by him twenty-one.

FOR RENT—Three room flat, heat, water, and bath, 226 N. Columbus, apply to 220 N. Columbus street. 265-3t.

Alexandria City and Suburbs

The case of Ponnet vs. the Southern Railway Company, a suit for $10,000 damages, occupied the attention of the Circuit Court for the city again today.

Mrs. David Wurtzburger has returned to her home in Baltimore, after a visit to her sisters, Mrs. Samuel Bendheim and Mrs. Louis Bendheim at their home in Prince street.

The Rev. Dr. Eugene B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Mr. Samuel Pitts will leave Monday evening for Norfolk to attend the General Association of Virginia.

The celebration of the fifth anniversary of the organization of the Boy Scouts of the city, held in the Westminster Building last night was well attended and the program rendered much enjoyed.

Miss Nancy Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. Samuel A. Moore, of Burkes, Virginia, and Mr. Clarence E. Purcell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Purcell, of 117 South Henry street, were married yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tomlin in Mount Ida, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. The Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell left on the Norfolk boat on a wedding trip.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

Mr. Tupper Barrett is home from the University of Virginia for a brief vacation. He will return to Charlottesville within a day or so.

Dame Rumor is circulating a story to the effect that a thousand dollars or so changed hands in the city here yesterday over the result of the election, but very considerately, she is not mentioning any names.

Captain Herbert Young leaves tonight for Frederick, Md., to take part in a Mass Meeting to be held in the interest of the Salvation Army in Frederick. He will also speak in one of the leading churches at night. The services in the local Salvation Army Hall will be in charge of Mrs. Captain Young and Captain McCrae.

The High School Cadets were out again yesterday afternoon and made a splendid showing. Professor Stanley G. Blanton spent the summer at Plattsburg Training Camp, and passed the examination as second lieutenant, and is an excellent drill master as the manner in which he handled the boys yesterday proved. In marching the cadets kept perfect line and step and Alexandria should be proud of her future "soldiers" and respond to every call for their benefit.

Lambert D. Lyles, Market Master, who has recently been confined to his home by indisposition, is out again.

Miss Helen Norris Cummings, who has recently returned from Philadelphia, where she was an honor guest at the Pennsylvania State meeting of Federated Clubs will go to Frederick, Maryland, to attend the Council meeting of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs. Miss Cummings will be the house guest of Mrs. Sanderson, State president.

At the joint meeting Wednesday morning of the War Relief Association and the Alexandria branch of the Red Cross a number of the members of the former connected themselves with the latter organization, but the War Relief as an entire association did not merge into the Red Cross and will continue to work along the same lines that it has heretofore.

Tickets for the lecture by the Hon. John Barrett in the Young Peoples' Building November 21 can be procured from members of the Cameron Club. It is hoped a crowded house will greet this well known speaker, for the subject, "The Trenches," will be of intense interest also the object for which this lecture is given, the school nurse, is one that all loyal Alexandrians should support.

WE'VE SURE GOT A RIGHT TO BE THANKFUL

Oh make me a turkey sandwich,
Garnished with moose (not beer),
For we're going to have a Thanksgiving,
The biggest in many a year.
There's glory away down in Dixie—
There's glory way up in the east,
The Dem's are the happiest ever
And they clamor aloud for a feast.
It's jolly to be Democratic
With a good Dem. back in the chair,
It's like a full glass to the thirsty
With freedom unfurled in the air;
Can't wait for the reg'lar Thanksgiving—
We've got to have one right away;
It's a jolly fine time for rejoicing
And we're bursting to say out our say.
That national bird we call turkey
We'll roast and we'll eat while he's hot,
There's a chaleur in Uncle Sam's country
Cause we're finished with all tommy-rot.
Come, Woodrow, please change the Thanksgiving—
The eighth of November's the best,
You've helped us to keep ourselves going
So now have your fun with the rest.
Shake hands with your Uncle, my gallants,
Old Samuel's smile's a bit broad,
We will go on enjoying our freedom
In a land that will not support fraud.
We feel that we're still in God's country—
We sure have not drifted away,
We've got a man in from Virginia
And we'll have our Thanksgiving today.

FIRE REVEALS A TRAGEDY.

Body Found in Ruins, With Identity of Victim Uncertain.

Camden, Del., Nov. 11.—After a fire of unknown origin had destroyed a small shanty back of the Episcopal Church early Thursday morning, the remains of a white man were found in the ruins, so badly burned that recognition was impossible. Two men, giving their names as Collins and Allen, both claiming Seaford as their home, have been employed for several weeks by Thomas Hargrove in loading cars. Both men occupied the shanty, but which one, if either, lost his life is not known, as both were missing from Camden this morning.

It is the supposition that the fire was caused by the overturning of a lamp or by a cigar stump.

WIRELESS TO WILSON

Secretary Tumulty Notified President of Removal of All Doubts

Asbury Park, Nov. 11.—Secretary Tumulty at 11 o'clock Thursday night wired formal notification to the President aboard the Mayflower. It was as follows:

"I am here, surrounded by the loyal Democrats of old Monmouth, and beg leave to send you our greetings and congratulations. The cause you have so nobly represented has at last triumphed, and we greet you. Our hearts, our thoughts and our affections go to you."

GERMANS WIN POSITIONS

Also Capture 3,000 Prisoners in Attack Along Front of Two and Half Miles.

London, Nov. 11—Driving against the center of the Russian line on the eastern front, German troops have gained possession of Russian positions on a front of about two and a half miles. The attack, which resulted also in the capture of more than 3,000 prisoners, took place in the district of Skrobowa, twelve miles northeast of Baranovichi, north of the Pinsk marshes, and where only isolated fighting has occurred lately. The Russians, Berlin also says, lost 27 machine guns and 12 mine throwers.

The success of the Germans is admitted by the Petrograd War Office, which announces that the Russians, after stubborn resistance against seven onslaughts, were finally compelled to fall back to their second line of trenches. Elsewhere on the eastern front, to the Carpathians, there has been little fighting, according to the official communications.

Notice

Hereafter, except when special features or a double bill are shown the price of admission at the Richmond theater will be 5 and 10 cents.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT BY UNCLE

Boy Dies Several Hours Later In Allegany Hospital.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 11.—James aged 12, son of Grover C. Crawford, tillerman at the Central Fire Department, died last night at the Allegany Hospital several hours after he had been shot accidentally by his uncle, Harry L. NcNabb, a pipeman of the West Side Fire Department, at the Crawford home, this city.

The lad's father was away on a hunting trip. NcNabb had been shooting rats and had the rifle between his legs when the lad grabbed the barrel and the weapon was discharged, the bullet entering his body.

McNabb was arrested, but later was released.

RUSSIA ANGERS NORWAY.

Submarine Attacks German U-Boat From Within Neutral Waters.

Berlin, Nov. 11.—Reports from Christiania say that a Russian torpedo-boat destroyer shelled, on November 2, a German submarine while the Russian vessel was between two and a half and three miles from the Norwegian town of Honnoen, near Vardoe, and while the submarine was from three to four miles distant from the Norwegian coast.

The Norwegian Government, according to the dispatch which was received by the Overseas News Agency, has instructed the Norwegian Minister at Petrograd to protest against this new alleged violation of neutrality.

DESCENDS BEHIND FOE LINES.

London, Nov. 11.—Baron Lucas of Grudwell, a member of the Royal Flying Corps and formerly Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for War, has either been captured by the Germans or killed on the French battlefield, according to The Evening Star. Lord Lucas was reconnoitering over the German lines in France in an aeroplane, the newspaper says, and was obliged to descend behind the German lines owing to a gale.

Election Amazes Germany

Amsterdam, Nov. 11—Great surprise is expressed in German newspapers received here over the re-election of President Wilson. Where there was doubt expressed in previous editions that the President again had been chosen, all now accept his re-election as a matter of fact.

The Cologne Gazette editorally said: "The only fundamental desire of the American people is peace. They procured a victory. With Wilson remaining, our relations with America will continue unchanged."

The Cologne Volks-Zeitung said: "President Wilson's re-election strengthens our confidence that the United States will remain neutral."

VISITORS FROM COUNTY

Del Ray Democrats Parade City Early Last Night in Fifteen Automobiles.

There has been quiet enthusiasm in this city since it became positively known that Woodrow Wilson was elected President of the United States last Tuesday. While there has been no disposition to give public expression to their gratification, Alexandria democrats have been exchanging congratulations and manifesting their patriotism in groups instead of mass gatherings.

Our democratic friends of of Alexandria county, however, found their environments too contracted for the full display of their exuberance, and early last night they invaded this city seated in fifteen automobiles. They carried a box, suggestive of a coffin, which bore the legend "Charles Evans Hughes." Candles were burning at each end of the "Sarcophagus" and it was partially covered with flowers. The autos were almost covered with flags, and as the cortege moved through the streets there were continuous blasts from horns.

Our county friends naturally drew a crowd which followed them through the streets. The procession moved north on Washington street and halted in front of the residence of Hon. C. C. Carlin. Unfortunately our Representative in Congress was away from home, and could not respond to the "serenade" given him by his friends from Del Ray.

Democrats of Washington, headed by Charles R. Darr and Robert N. Harper have launched a movement for a big torchlight procession Monday night in honor of President Wilson's re-election.

It is planned to march up Pennsylvania avenue to the White House, assemble in the White House grounds and welcome the President back to Washington for another four years.

Mr. Harper says he is satisfied that at least 40,000 people will march in the procession carrying torches.

Many Alexandrians have signified their intention to swell this procession, and hundreds from this city and Alexandria and Fairfax counties will visit Washington next Monday night.

VIRGINIA ORCHARDS VALUABLE

One Sold Recently Brought $800 an Acre.

A decade ago the valley of Virginia did not produce as much fruit as was consumed. There were a few fruit trees on every farm but they were not cared for and were not profitable. In recent years more thought has been given to fruit growing, especially apples. Special attention is given to cultivation, fertilization, pruning, and spraying of the orchards.

Now, not only apples but peaches and other fruits are being raised throughout the valley of Virginia where are now located some of the finest orchards in the country, new markets have opened up in the eastern cities and orchard lands have risen rapidly in value.

One orchard, known as the Bowman orchard, in Albemarle County Virginia, recently sold for $800 an acre.

BERLIN PROMISES INQUIRY

Doubts Tale of the Marina's Unwarned Sinking, However

Washington, Nov. 11—Germany has informed the American Embassy in Berlin that the sinking of the British steamer Marina on October 28, with the loss of the lives of six American horse tenders, will be thoroughly investigated as soon as submarines operating on that date have reported, according to confidential advices received today from Berlin.

The information given the Embassy, it was said here, was to the effect that Germany did not believe the facts would be developed similar to the published reports that the Marina was torpedoed without warning, officials maintaining that Germany has no intention of changing her methods of submarine warfare.

The German Embassy here has made no inquiry of the German Government regarding the sinking of the liner Arabia because it considers the communication to the American Embassy in the Marina case is sufficient.

THROW UP THE SPONGE

Hitchcock and Perkins Urge That Defeat be Acknowledged—Find No Ground for Contest.

New York, Nov. 11—The Hughes campaign managers have abandoned their plans to contest the election of President Wilson. They announced that no steps would be taken to secure a recount in close states unless the official canvass of the vote disclosed glaring frauds.

"We have no evidence of any such frauds," added Chairman Willcox in making this announcement.

The returns from California, where President Wilson's lead was unbroken; from New Mexico, which showed that State definitely Democratic, and New Hampshire, whose electoral votes appeared certain to go for President Wilson, discouraged hope that it might yet be found that Mr. Hughes was elected, though he still held a slight lead in Minnesota.

Frank H. Hitchcock and George W. Perkins urge that the defeat be accepted gracefully and the usual congratulatory messages be sent. Chairman Willcox vetoed this suggestion and let it be known that Mr. Hughes "is in the hands" of his campaign managers.

Chairman Willcox was the only Republican of prominence at national headquarters who refused to concede the election of President Wilson.

Republicans national headquarters here were deserted early last night.

Chairman Willcox announced that he would not be on hand again except for conferences.

The Democratic National Committee apparently regards the campaign as closed, for the work of dismantling headquarters is well under way Chairman Vance C. McCormick spent the night at a hotel in this city and probably will go to his home at Harrisburg tomorrow.

FAR-REACHING EFFECTS

The re-election of Woodrow Wilson as President of the United States last Tuesday was significant. It shows that a man can be elected to that high office without receiving the electoral votes of New York. It shows, too, that while the south remains as Gibraltar, the solid north is more suggestive of a rope of sand. The President upset all precedents in American politics. States heretofore republican helped to retain him in the White House, and New England's rock-ribbed republicanism almost cracked under the strain. Progressives also aided in rolling up the majority.

The Philadelphia Record, which supported Mr. Wilson in one of Mr. Hughes's strongholds, observes that repeated efforts by the Republicans to break the solid South have failed. They have flaunted the blessings of protection before the gaze of Southern States in which manufacturing is of growing importance without avail, except that West Virginia voted for Mr. Hughes. The industries of that State are not those which make the most plusible plea for protection, but they are those in which very large numbers of men are employed by a few corporations, and it is possible that this has something to do with the Republican gains there.

But the President has pretty effectively broken the solid North. Though he lost his own State, and most of, perhaps all of, New England, he won eight States which are usually Republican, and he won them by large majorities. When the State of Ohio gives a majority of 75,000 for a Democratic candidate for President; when Colorado gives Mr. Wilson a very large majority; when Kansas gives him 25,000 majority, and the Republican flirtations with the Mormons prove worthless, and sheep-raising Wyoming goes Democratic, and the State of Washington gives the President a majority of 15,000, something has happened, and it should set the politicans of both sides to considering what it was.

Frank Hitchcock is a Republican politician of very considerable experience, and he has been doing a little thinking, the conclusion of which is that the Northwest is breaking away from the Northeast and joining the South. It may take another election to determine whether this is the fact, or whether Mr. Wilson is more highly regarded in the West than in the East. But if Mr. Hitchcock's inference be correct a very notable change in the political centre of gravity has occurred.

The West and the South together can always control this country. If they have combined, the political power of the Northeastern corner of the United States has permanently departed. There have been several times in the past when it seemed that the West was about to combine with the South, but the event has proved otherwise. Now we have a Democratic candidate who may lose New York and yet win by carrying Ohio, Nebraska and Kansas and a few other Western States. New York with its 45 electoral votes, ceases to be pivotal and New England is on a sidetrack.

Both the West and the South ceased many years ago to be exclusively agricultural. They have very large commercial interests. They have extensive industries. They have a far larger variety of interests than the Northeastern States which consist almost entirely of a counting room and a shop. The Northwest and the South have the counting room and the shop, but they also have the store, the forest, the mine, and especially the farm. They have the same business interests, and we are inclined to believe that Frank Hitchcock is right, and they are realizing that th[illegible] common political interests.

Col. Roosevelt's sole comment [illegible] on the re-election of Presi[illegible]on was: "Excuse me, I hav[illegible] to say."

MARTIN FOR FLOOR LEADER.

The papers throughout the State are enthused over the prospects of Hon. Thomas S. Martin again becoming Democratic leader of the Senate The Richmond Virginian virtually voices the opinion of democrats of the State when it observes that with the distinguished Virginian returned to the White House the "mother of States and statesman" may be still further honored by the elevation of her senior Senator, Hon. Thomas Staples Martin, to the position of Democratic leader in the Senate. The movement to thus honor Senator Martin, and through him Virginia, will be generally commended by the people of this State, and will, we have no doubt, meet with favor throughout the country.

Senator Martin is well fitted for floor leader, both by natural gifts, and experience. He was minority leader in the Senate from 1910 to 1912; when the Republicans were in entire control. He was recognized as watchful, alert, and resourceful. He bore the heat and burden of the day at a time when this position was most onerous. With the Democrats in full control in the Senate, Senator Martin not only deserves the honor, but will render efficient service to his party and his country. He is recognized as one of the most influential and far-sighted men in the Senate. He is a natural leader. The affairs of the nation and the interests of Democracy may both be safely entrusted to his sound judgment and tireless energy in the work of the Senate. Senator Martin is worthy of the honor, and we hope he may be called to this post of service for his party and his country.

OBJECTIONAL WORDS.

During the meeting of the Protestant Episcopal Convention in St. Louis recently a proposal was made to substitute the word "condemnation" for "damnation" in several collects.

Many people of all denominations have expressed themselves in favor of eliminating the word "damnation" not only from prayer books and creeds but from the Bible also. It is a harsh word and grates upon the ears of the present generation. Four hundred years ago, when the King James translation of the scriptures was made, it was not so objectionable, but there is no good reason why our English translators should not have used the word "condemnation" in every place, and not locked for such a harsh synonym.

There is another word which is equally repugnant to many. We refer to "hell" which abounds so often in creeds, prayer books and the Bible. This word is more to be deplored than the word "damnation". The King James scholars translated several words by one word, "hell"—the Hebrew "sheol", and the Greek words "hades," "gehenna" and "tartarus." One of the creeds says Christ descended into "hell." Peter in his reference to the Saviour entering the unseen world uses the word "tartarus," the place Orpheus penetrated in searching for his beloved Eurodyce. The description of this place as given by the ancients is in marked contrast to the abode of the lost described by Dante. Orpheus and Eurodyce are represented as eventually traversing the Elysian fields happily reunited.

Some modern translators of the Bible give the original words, "sheol," "hades," "gehenna" and "tartarus", and let the reader draw his own conclusions.

We are aware of the fact that modern translations of the scriptures do not appeal to the great majority of church members. They strangely imagine that any one who would dare use a synonym or a word which gives a more accurate translation is committing an unpardonable sin. Such should remember, however, that the old Testament was not written originally in English, but in Hebrew (with a slight sprinkling of Syriac and Chaldea) and the New Testament in Greek, and that our version is a translation. No translation can be absolutely perfect, and when scholars of the twentieth century, many of whom far surpass those in the days of King James, make more literal translations their labors should be appreciated.

When the English translators began their work they had about one hundred Greek manuscript copies of the New Testament to examine. In our day translators have about eight hundred, including some several centuries older than those used by the King James translators.

It would afford an interesting study to any one to take a modern Greek Testament, that is one compiled from the older manuscripts, and compare it with the Griesbach copy from which our translation was made. Literally hundreds of words, generally superfluous ones, which have crept into the text, are wanting in the older copies.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

A large black snake, which had gorged itself with two large china eggs used in the hen nest of a farmer on Back river, was killed Thursday afternoon on the farm of Mr. Grey near Hampton. Mr. Grey and R. L. Tennis were hauling hay, when the snake was found under a pile of grass. It was in great distress and the men had little trouble in killing it. The center of the snake's stomach was bulged at points about eight inches apart and when the men cut it open they found the snake had robbed the nest of the eggs, which it had been unable to digest, and had probably gone under the pile of grass to pay the penalty of its robbery in death. Mr. Tennis said the snake was more than four feet long.

The city of Portsmouth, which recently adopted the commission form of government, has been negotiating with City Manager R. Stuart Royer, of Fredericksburg, with the view of obtaining his services for that city. The city has made a proposition to Mr. Royer, by which he will continue in Fredericksburg for two more years He will receive $3,600 in 1917, and $4,000 in 1918, and will be permitted to do any outside work which can be performed without interference with his official duties as City Manager. South Carolina Governor Will Use Force to Put Strikers Out of Mill Cottages.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 11.—Governor Manning last night ordered five National Guard Coast Artillery companies, under Major Robertson, of Greenville, to proceed immediately to Anderson, and directed that five divisions of naval militia be held subject to call, in order that magistrates' constables might be protected in enforcing ejectment writs against striking operatives of the Equinox and Gluck Cotton Mills, who occupy cottages on the mill premises, and are alleged to have resisted in arms the magistrates' process.

Recourse to the militia was taken after Sheriff Ashley, the highest peace-officer in the county, had telegraphed the Governor that he had not yet served the writs.

"I will do this work," the sheriff said, "according to my own judgment, and if this don't suit you, you can send up here and do it yourself."

Governor Manning said that he had resorted to the military only in the presence of a failure on the part of the civil arm. The troops will reach Anderson tomorrow morning.

A strike has been in progress at the Equinox and Gluck mills for about two months. The State board of conciliation and representatives of the Federal Bureau of Mediation and Conciliation have several times endeavored to adjust the controversy. The strike resulted from a demand by the operatives for a 10 per cent wage increase. This was refused by the mill management.

WILSON'S VICTORY HAILED

London Editors Rejoice Over President's Re-election

London, Nov. 11—The re-election of President Wilson is welcomed by The Weekly Nation as an event favorable both to peace and to the cause of State liberty, and the paper thinks that his election offers hopes of an earlier end to the war agony than any nation enduring it, can yet foresee. William Henry Massingham, the editor, in a special note referring to President Wilson, says:

"The resources of the European statesmanship are not so rich, nor are its personalities so inspiring that it can readily dispense with an acute powerful and in some degree prophetic intellect the head of the greatest power that the war has left standing and the most sympathetic to ourselves. I think that most men and women here, who take more than casual interest in American politics read the news of Mr. Hughes's earlier success with sinking hearts."

The New Statesman regards it as better for the entente allies to have to do with a President whose mind they know and who is unlikely to raise serious difficulties concerning the British blockade.

"Moreover," it adds, "Wilson is the more likely to be interested personally in the promotion of an Anglo-American entente, on the creation of which after the war so many important things will depend."

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for seven years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

SUNK BY SUBMARINE

British Steamer, With Cargo of Cotton From Egypt, Sent Down in Mediterranean.

Boston, Nov. 11.— The British freight steamer Gulf of Suez, bound from Alexandria, Egypt, for Liverpool, with a cargo of cotton, has been sunk in the Mediterranean by a German submarine, according to private advices received here. The steamer carried no passengers. The fate of the crew was not stated in the message.

A large part of the cargo, it is said, was consigned to Boston and New York importers, and was to have been transhipped at Liverpool. Importers here say that the Gulf of Suez, is the third steamer with cotton consigned to American importers that has been sunk within the last few days.

RUSSIAN FLEET AIDS

Bombards Black Sea Port, Inflicting Great Damage

Petrograd, Nov. 11—The Russian fleet has come to the aid of the Slavonic armies which are fighting in the Dobrudja. An official announcement from the war office today said the fleet has heavily bombarded the Roumanian seaport of Constanza, inflicting great damage.

London, Nov. 11—The great battle between Russo-Roumanian forces and Mackensen's troops in the Dobrudja for possession of the bridge across the Danube at Cernavoda continues. Advices from Bucharest Petrograd, and Berlin emphasize this as the most important operation of the day on any front.

Occupation of the Dunarea station two miles west of Cernavoda appears to have given the Czar's armies at least a temporary advantage in their efforts to envelop General Mackensen's left flank resting on the Danube. Military experts here say a Slav success at this point would place the Teutons at great disadvantage in Dobrudja.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain, famous suffragist, suffered a relapse today and she is again in a critical condition in Los Angeles. Mrs. Boissevain is suffering from plastic anaemia.

Secretary Lansing announces that the Austrian government has named Count de Tarnow-Tarnowski, Ambassador to the United States and that he had been accepted by this government.

One hundred and twenty persons have been drowned through the sinking of a barge on the Vistula, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam, The disaster occurred at Kamierz, near Lublin, in Poland.

Dispatches from Gen. George Bell, jr., to Gen. Frederick Funston indicate that Chihuahua City had either fallen in battle into Francisco Villa's hands or had been voluntarily evacuated by Gen. Jacinto Trevino.

Such was their haste in abandoning fort Vaux that the Germans left behind a million cartridges, 3,000 meat rations, 3,000 bottles of mineral water and large quantities of anti-tetanus serum and other drugs now unobtainable outside of Germany.

Practically every railroad in the country is preparing to test the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law in the courts. Four Western railroads already have filed bills in injunction suits and a number of Eastern roads are preparing papers in similar suits.

Field Marshal Viscount French, commander in chief of the British home forces, believes that the war is approaching a climax. It will be reached either in the winter or next spring. This opinion was expressed in a speech which the famous officer made in London Thursday night.

An official British compilation of German casualty lists since the outbreak of the war gives a total of 3,755,639 officers and men with 919,234 killed. Naval and colonial casualties are not included. In October, the Germans lost, according to this compilation, a total of 199,675, of whom 34,321 were killed.

Armed with revolvers three youths yesterday afternoon held up the office of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, New York, and despite the plucky resistance of Miss Emma Jetter, the cashier, got away with $2,000. In the struggle Miss Jetter was knocked unconscious with the butt of a revolver.

C. F. Schwarts, mechanician for H. J. Horstman was seriously hurt yesterday when Horstman's Mercer, No. 5, overturned on "Death Curve," at Santa Monica, Cal., during practice for the Vanderbilt Cup and Grand Prix races. Horstman, who was thrown clear of the wreckage, is expected to recover, The machine is the same car in which Spencer Wishart was killed at Milwaukee.

Worn out by the tension of waiting for the returns from doubtful States which would determine whether he had been elected to the Presidency, Charles E. Hughes retired at 9 o'clock last night. He spent the day at his hotel in New York, except for a two-hour automobile ride with his wife in the afternoon. Mr. Hughes has not yet conceded the election of President Wilson, and probably will not do so until the vote of close States has been officially counted.

The last twenty-four hours have seen the greatest series of air battles since the beginning of the European war. In one of these battles sixty and seventy airplanes—thirty British and the rest German—fought a tremendous engagement high above the Somme battle front. No less than thirty-three machines, French, British and German, were shot to earth in the course of the day. This number may be greatly increased —in fact may reach the great total of forty-nine.

With the control of the House of Representatives in the Sixty fifth Congress yet in the balance, Capital employes are interested in the Congressional results, for a change in the majority party means that 1,500 employes will be dropped from Uncle Sam's payroll on March 4. Later returns give the Democrats 215 seats. The Republicans have elected 211 members. One Independent, one Progressive-Protectionist also are among the winners. Five districts are still in doubt, four of these being in West Virginia and one in New Mexico.

President Wilson broke the silence he has maintained since the election in replying to a boisterous greeting of welcome from the students of Williams College at Williamstown, Mass., yesterday evening to say that he had enjoyed the political fight just ended. "Politics is the only means we have of expressing opinions we believe to be of advantage to the country," he said. "I enjoyed this fight, but after all a man who is not willing to fight for the things he believes in is without the red blooded qualities necessary to accomplish results." I came here to forget the field of politics for a day or so and it is very gracious and delightful to be received in this manner."

FIRST PEACE MOVE SEEN

Amsterdam, No. 11—Several German newspapers, in commenting on Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's speech, express the opinion that it opens the way for peace. The Tageblatt says the ideas for the future which the Chancellor discussed are more important than the question who is guilty of having caused the war, and refers to the Chancellor's remark that after the war humanity will demand measures to prevent recurrency of such conflicts.

"Whoever is convinced," the Tageblatt continues, "that the cry will go through humanity for a peaceful arrangement will not fail to make preparation for a response to this great cry."

The Freisinnige Zeitung says the Chancellor in all seriousness declares his readiness to collaborate in efforts to obtain international guarantees for lasting peace, adding: "Now is the time for the Entente Powers, especially Great Britain, to come forward with a program."

The Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ says what the German Government now desires is tolerably clear; that the Chancellor expressed it in different words than Philipp Scheidemann, a Socialist leader in the Reichstag, who in a speech last month asserted the belligerent nation desired peace, but that the views of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg are no less clear than are those of Herr Scheidemann.

"In the Chancellor's speech," the Vorwaerts continues, "one hears the first sound of the future rustling which will signalize the end of war's horrors."

A SAFE TEST.

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills, They are strongly recommended by Alexandria people.

Mrs. L. C. Nalls, of 540 south Patrick street, Alexandria, says: "I could hardly get about the house, as my back felt so weak and sore. When I got down, it was almost impossible for me to straighten up. I couldn't rest after I went to bed, as my back ached so badly and in the morning I could hardly dress myself. I felt weak and tired all over. My kidneys were irregular in action and my head ached. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at C. W. Sumner's Drug Store, did me so much good that I got another. After I had finished that, my back stopped aching and my kidneys haven't caused me any trouble since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. L. C. Nalls had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y.
